Numb. 4207

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday March 4. to Thursday March 7. 1705.

Dantzick, Feb. 20. N. S.

OUR laſt Letters from Warſaw give an Account, That ſome Swediſh Priſoners had been brought thither from Grodno, who were taken by a Party of the King of Poland's Forces at the time when the Swediſh Army paſſed by that Place; that a Party of his Majeſty's Troops, commanded by the Sieur Malerewski, had met near Lowitz a ſtrong Party of the Confederated Poles, who were raiſing Contributions there; and that he attacked them, killed ſeveral upon the ſpot, and brought back to Warſaw 50 Priſoners, and 1000 Florins in Money which he had taken from the Enemy, beſides other Booty. The King of Poland having received the News of the Defeat of his Forces under the Command of General Schuylembourg, by the Swediſh Army commanded by General Reinſchild, ſet out from Warſaw the 18th Inſtant early in the morning, with a conſiderable Body of Horſe, having left in that Town a Gariſon of 1000 Men. His Majeſty directed his March towards Lowitz, and from thence will proceed towards General Reinſchild's Army to obſerve his Motions, and prevent his making any further Advantage of his late Succeſs. They write from Lithuania, That the Swediſh Army there had not yet made any Attempt againſt the Muſcovites, who lie very ſtrongly Intrench'd near Grodno; and that ſome Parties of the Swedes having gone up as far as Wilna, the Muſcovite Troops, who were there, believing the whole Swediſh Army was coming upon them, immediately withdrew, and retired to Potozko. There is an Account from Livonia, That a Body of Swediſh Troops under the Command of General Schreitenfeld, had met with a Party of the Muſcovite Gariſon of Dorpt and routed them; after which, the General came before that Town and blok'd it up, and ſent to General Lewenhaupt, who has the chief Command of the King of Sweden's Forces in Livonia, for more Forces, and a Train of Artillery, to enable him to form the Siege of that Place, and that General Lewenhaupt had drawn together a Body of Troops; but it was uncertain whether it was in order to carry on this Siege, or with intent to march into Lithuania and reinforce the King of Sweden's Army. Major-General Baur, who commands the Muſcovite Troops in Courland, has drawn them together, and is marching towards Livonia to obſerve General Lewenhaupt. Lemberg and the other Towns on that ſide, which have lately been viſited by the Plague, are now wholly free from it.

Liege, March 2. A further Supply of Ammunition has lately been brought hither by Water from Holland, and part of it is ſent to Huy, and the reſt laid up in our Magazines. They are working with great application upon our new Fortifications, and thoſe of Huy. Moſt of the Officers of the Confederate Troops in theſe Parts, have raiſed all their Recruits. Our Parties make frequent Excurſions upon the Enemy, and with very good Succeſs: One of them, which went laſt week out of Maſtricht, advanced to the very Suburbs of Bruſſels, and brought home ſeveral of the Inhabitants as Hoſtages, for the Payment of the Contributions demanded of them.

Falmouth, Feb. 28. The 26th Inſtant arrived here 10 Sail of Tin Ships, and ſeveral Coaſters from London and the Iſle of Wight, but laſt from Plimouth, under Convoy of Her Majeſty's Ship the Maidſtone; which having ſeen them ſafe in, made the beſt of her way to join a Fleet of outward-bound Tranſports, Merchant-men and other Veſſels, under Convoy of ſeveral of Her Majeſty's Ships that were then in the Offin. The 26th in the morning, to the Eaſtward of this Port, a ſmall French Privateer fell in with ſome of the Coaſters who were next the Land, and drove one aſhore; but the Cambridge's Tender, which had 30 Men on board, and 4 Guns, came to her Aſſiſtance, and ſoon obliged the Privateer to make off. The Houſe of Naſſau, a Privateer of Fluſhing, ſailed hence yeſterday, being homeward-bound.

Dartmouth, March 1. Yeſterday ſailed hence the Elizabeth and Hannah of London, Captain Robert Chaſe Commander, homeward-bound from Oporto. The Marlborough and Lucy Gallies are ſtill remaining here.

Plimouth, March 3. Her Majeſty's Ship the Triton ſailed from hence the 28th paſt to the Eaſtward, with a Merchant-man under her Convoy.